Cooke case dismissal asked

WASHINGTON — Lawyers for 2nd Lt. Christopher M. Cooke, a former Air Force missile officer accused of making unauthorized visits to the Soviet Embassy, have asked the US Court of Military Appeals to block Cooke's impending court-martial. An associate of Cooke's chief civilian counsel, F. Lee Bailey, confirmed yesterday that a motion had been filed, contending Cooke's military superiors had reneged on a promise of immunity from prosecution. (AP)
